Hi, we have seen a pattern of retaliation and vandalism by [REDACTED] that I am concerned may continue. There is no indication that [REDACTED] have been involved.

To recap, upon our CRT counter claim regarding the boxwoods, [REDACTED] cut down all the remaining boxwoods in the front garden within 24 hours.

After my taking the occasional photo of [REDACTED] daily trip to [REDACTED] the roof deck [REDACTED] sprayed water at the side of the house by my dining room wall late one night. At the time there was a pattern of random late stomping on my side of the deck and lifting and dropping my patio furniture multiple times a week to harass and incite a response.

Again within 24 hours of our win on the mediation CRT, a large chunk of mud was affixed to the top of my front door, pic attached.

Most recently, I was on the roof deck this weekend to examine my drain and take photos of the leaves to send you all. [REDACTED] had flipped over one of the sections of my sectional patio furniture leaving it upside down.

I'm not sure what we can do but I wanted these actions on the record. My concern is that as the AGM is upcoming and her motions are likely to fail and we can expect to win more of the CRT claims this behaviour is likely to continue and even escalate.

[REDACTED] do you have any advice on what action if any Council should take?

Thanks,

Don
